

REBECCA BELSKI RECEIVES PENNSYLVANIA CHILD CARE ASSOCIATION AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

The Pennsylvania Child Care Association (PACCA) announced the winner of the 2010 Award of Excellence Award on June 8th during the Early Childhood Action Day in the Capital Rotunda in Harrisburg. “Early Childhood Action Day is the perfect day to acknowledge those child care professionals who inspire the rest,” said Diane Dixon, Chair of the Pennsylvania Child Care Association Board of Directors. Their dedication and hard work each day keeps Pennsylvania’s children learning and families working. “Child care providers everywhere play a critical role in Pennsylvania’s future and today’s economy.”

Rebecca Joann Belski from Duck Hollow Discovery Learning Center was moved by the event as this year’s recipient of the Award of Excellence. The award honors directors and administrators for outstanding service and accomplishments in the field of administration. “I am extremely honored to have received the PACCA Award of Excellence. In August 1999, with the help of my family, I was able to purchase Duck Hollow Discovery Learning Center. Since that time, it has been a pleasure to come to work here on a daily basis, to share my life with my employees, children, and parents,” said Rebecca. “This award validates what we have accomplished. Therefore, I proudly accept this award, not just for myself, but for all the people who made this possible.”

In addition to the Award of Excellence, Rebecca was also presented with a citation from the House of Representatives by Representative Deberah Kula during the ceremony. She also received a Certificate of Achievement from Senator Richard Kusunic.

Rebecca is the owner of Duck Hollow as well as the Cub’s Den at Penn State Fayette, the Eberly Campus. She resides in Uniontown with her husband, Bradley Scott and their two children Isabella and Hudson.
